

Mother of Mercy Messengers

Offering Catholic Renewal Programs for the Entire Parish Family

Dave and Joan Maroney
MOMM Directors and Presenters

Our Mission is the Parish!

Dave and Joan Maroney are directors of Mother of Mercy Messengers, or MOMM, an Apostolate of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception from the National Shrine of The Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, Massachusetts. When not on the road they live and operate their apostolate from their rural home near San Antonio, Texas.

Since 1999 the Maroneys have delivered more than 700 inspiring multi-media Catholic renewal programs based on Holy Scripture, Church teaching, and revelations taken from the Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in parishes and schools throughout the United States. In addition to covering rich subject matter, their innovative style, extensive experience, and variety of programs can make it easy to spiritually enrich, inspire and renew all segments of the parish community. Contact MOMM to plan what would be best for your parish, school, retreat or conference soon.

An Array of Presentations & Products to Share the Faith

Divine Mercy for Young Hearts A Captivating Lesson in the Catholic Faith

This multi-media presentation truly captivates the heart and mind of all who attend, not just the children. By exploring the life and mission of St. Faustina Kowalska young hearts are lead to the greatest riches of the Catholic faith, especially the True Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist and Sacrament of Penance, the power of prayer and the call for deeds of mercy. Presentations are tailored to the age group from kindergarten through junior high and can vary in length from 55 to 90 minutes.

The Spark Setting the World Afire with Divine Mercy

The adult and high school version of Divine Mercy for Young Hearts. Often the initial presentation for multi-day events or conferences. Covers all the basics of Divine Mercy, focusing on how and why they lead one to hope, healing, conversion and peace. Highlights the amazing correlation between the image of The Divine Mercy and the Shroud of Turin, and paves the way to Tell All Souls About My Mercy. Concludes with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy for the sick and dying. Adoration and Sacrament of Penance optional. One hour or 90 minutes.

Tell All Souls About My Mercy Conversations with Jesus from the Diary of St. Faustina

MOMM's stellar flagship program creatively brings the message of Jesus, The Divine Mercy to life. A brilliant mix of readings from the Diary of St. Faustina, visual effects, meditative music leads one to not only understand the message of Divine Mercy but to also experience Divine Mercy. This moving and inspiring one hour multi-media presentation is typically given in the church and followed with a Divine Mercy Holy Hour led by the presenters with the aid of The Divine Mercy Adoration Companion (see below), and Sacrament of Penance. Entire program length is two hours, but may be modified to fit time constraints. Available on DVD in English and Spanish. "Do It Yourself" Kits are also available and supported by MOMM's staff and materials. Contact MOMM for more details.

St. Faustina's Way of the Cross

Traditional Way of the Cross format enhanced with quotes of Jesus and thoughts of St. Faustina from her Diary at each station. Live renditions may be incorporated in Lenten observances or performed for conferences, retreats, or other special events. Typically concludes with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. 45 minutes

The Divine Mercy Adoration Companion - Booklet

Selected prayers from the Diary of St. Faustina, traditional Benediction hymns and prayers, and a Guide to Confession make this booklet a perfect companion for personal or group Adoration and Penance services. Distributed to attendees when Adoration is incorporated in live events. Available in English and Spanish. 20 pages.

Divine Mercy Worksheets & Activities for Kids - CD-ROM

Catholic Teaching Aides for Kindergarten through High School – And Beyond

When used in conjunction with the DVD Divine Mercy for Young Hearts you will have a complete supplemental curriculum on Divine Mercy as an integral part of the Catholic Faith. A variety of handouts, worksheets, creative activities and arts and crafts make teaching the Faith easy. A must for every religious education program and Catholic family. Includes Girl Scout Handbook for Divine Mercy Award. 120 pages.

MOMM Set Up Details

Do whatever is within your power to spread devotion to My mercy (Jesus to St. Faustina, Diary 1074).

MOMM has the Set-Up

MOMM brings a complete sound-and-lighting system that requires nothing more than access power outlet. A life-size reproduction of the original image of The Divine Mercy and the Shroud of Turin are tastefully displayed in your church's sanctuary alongside a large projection screen. Screen sizes vary depending on the environment and space .

If necessary, set up will be arranged in a way that will not interfere with the ability to celebrate Mass. Repositioning of the screen, images or lighting takes just a few minutes to accommodate a service or to prepare for Exposition of The Blessed Sacrament. Additional help is not required for set-up unless stairs are an issue. All three hours set up time.

All About the Book Table

An array of Divine Mercy materials is made available to foster further growth in the love and knowledge of The Divine Mercy, to assist attendees in applying the message of mercy in their own lives, and to help them extend the message and devotion to others. Items are attractively displayed at the entrance of the church or another appropriate location. MOMM brings all that will be needed for set up and transactions, however assistance at the tables before and after the program is essential.

More about Dave and Joan Maroney

Dave was born and raised in the Baptist faith in Corpus Christi, Texas where he earned a teaching and master's degree from Corpus Christi State University. As a young adult Dave volunteered for eight years as a Young Life leader . His professional career includes computer programming for a major insurance company in San Antonio and 10 years of teaching high school math. It was in the classroom that Dave began to utilize the Divine Mercy message and to see the positive affect it had on his students, especially those with family struggles. Dave is also a talented musician and since 1982 he has been the popular local icon of Aloha Dave and the Tourists providing good clean surf music and fun for all ages along the Texas coast.

Joan was born a cradle Catholic in Chicago, Illinois, but as a young teenager her family moved to Dallas, Texas. Joan went on to St. Mary's University in San Antonio where she received a degree in marketing and landed a career in sales, marketing and management with a Fortune 500 company. Drawn to a deeper level of faith and commitment to family, Joan transitioned from corporate life to active parish life and youth ministry for a period of ten years before taking her inspiring faith and zeal on the road to parishes and youth across the country.

Dave and Joan were married July 4, 1992 at the Corpus Christi Cathedral where Dave formally joined the Catholic Church in 1994. In 1996 they moved to the Texas hill country near San Antonio where they currently reside and operate their growing apostolate. They are members in good standing of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Comfort, Texas and in compliance with the Archdiocese of San Antonio's Safe Environment Program. They have three wonderful adult children and are blessed with a granddaughter, Emily.
