Divine Mercy – Fastest Growing Devotion

On April 30 2000, Pope John Paul II said it was the happiest day of his life. He had canonized a humble Polish nun, Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, and officially proclaimed a great Feast to be celebrated the first Sunday after Easter each year. Come to an inspiring production presented at (LOCATION, DAY, DATE, and TIME) to learn about the great graces available on the Feast of Divine Mercy and of many other promises conveyed to St. Faustina for our times. Presented by Mother of Mercy Messengers, a outreach apostolate of the National Shrine of The Divine Mercy, Stockbridge, MA. Admission: Free Will Offering Four weeks notice is highly recommended. Consider the use of a different invitation each week. The most effective promotion couples the bulletin notice with enthusiastic announcements following Holy Mass.

The single greatest factor determining parish participation, other than prayer, is encouragement for each parishioner to attend by the parish priests.
