A Great Opportunity to Spread Divine Mercy

Imagine Divine Mercy spreading as never before in your own parish and diocese, as well as around the world! Imagine the Church's hierarchy and thousands of laypeople gathering in key cities to celebrate Divine Mercy through presentations, personal witness, and works of mercy. That's the amazing potential as we prepare to celebrate two years that will place Divine Mercy right at the heart of the Church — all with the blessing of Pope Benedict XVI and many cardinals and bishops.

It kicks off with the first-ever World Apostolic Congress on Mercy in Rome from April 2-6. Then the momentum continues with regional and national Mercy Congresses in 2009, including the U.S. Mercy Congress. And that's not all. These Congresses will be ongoing in the life of the Church after 2009, as are Eucharistic Congresses today.

Prepare Well with These Key Resources

Divine Mercy: A Guide from Genesis to Benedict XVI

The Congress will explore the depth and breadth of God's mercy. With this guide, learn from a Divine Mercy expert what Scripture, the Church's great theologians, the saints, and recent popes have said about the topic. Includes study questions and discussion starters for groups. "I highly recommend [this book]," says EWTN TV show host Fr. Benedict Groeschel, CFR.

MC-AGGB $14.95

John Paul II: The Great Mercy Pope

The first day of the World Mercy Congress will honor the Divine Mercy legacy of Pope John Paul II. This anthology offers a rich and broad collection of his writings and spoken words on mercy, with incisive commentary by Divine Mercy authority Fr. George Kosicki, CSB. The book even covers the Great Mercy Pope's influence on Pope Benedict XVI, his successor.

Encyclical Letter of Pope John Paul II

Rich in Mercy

DIVES IN MISERICORDIA

In seeking to appreciate John Paul II's legacy of mercy, this encyclical is a must-read. In it, the Holy Father demonstrates how God the Father is "rich in mercy" through a masterful exposition of Scripture, especially the Gospel parable of the prodigal son. He speaks of how the merciful love of the Father is revealed in Christ as the "Incarnation of Mercy" and "the inexhaustible source of mercy."

The Chaplet of The Divine Mercy

As you prepare for the Congress and then celebrate it, pray The Divine Mercy Chaplet every day for God's mercy on us and on the whole world. In this version of the Chaplet, join the Marians and the Flynn family in singing this prayer of mercy in the sanctuary of the National Shrine of The Divine Mercy in Stockbridge, MA.
